

WELL-MATCHED

We've tracked down the hard-to-find objects in this issue so you don't have to.

1. An antique chandelier illuminates Susan Gutfreund's elegant Parisian drawing room (page 75) and this regal reproduction channels its grandeur. From Schonbek, 800-836-1892.

2. Evening Blue, an off-the-shelf shade, approximates the custom color that Kelli Ford used in her dramatic Los Angeles dining room (page 89). From Benjamin Moore, 800-672-4686.

3. Jan Showers created the tufted Mercer bench for her own bedroom—a perfect match for the made-to-measure version perched at the end of Jennifer Lopez's bed (page 117). 214-747-5252.

4. The Mandarin Chinoiserie screen is an apt stand-in for the antique French model Darryl Carter deployed in a worldly Texas house (page 100). From Raymond Goins, 404-835-2579.

5. A black lacquer finish, cabriole legs, a ruby leather desktop—the La Boheme desk has all the presence of Susan Gutfreund's antique (page 81). From Ralph Lauren Home, 888-475-7674.

6. Gold-plated bamboo flatware captures the exotic flavor of Hutton Wilkinson's flamboyant table setting (page 105). From Ricci Argentieri, 718-418-1000.
